DETAILED ACTION

Location of Application

1. The Art Unit location of your application in the PTO has changed. To aid in correlating any papers for this application, all further correspondence regarding this application should be directed to Art Unit 1655.

Election/Restriction

- 2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - Claims 1-19, drawn to a method of expression profiling, classified in class 435, subclass 91.51.
 - II. Claims 20-27, drawn to an isolated nucleic acid (claims 20 and 21) and a system for expression profiling, all classified in class 536, subclass 23.1; and a kit for conducting toxicity (claims 22-24), classified in class 435, subclass 91.2.
 - III. Claim 28, drawn to a method of conducting expression profiling, classified in class436, subclass 94.
- 3. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Groups I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product such as any kind protein or enzyme.

Groups I and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions, these inventions are directed to different methods comprised of different method steps and result in different end products.

Groups II and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product such as any kind protein or enzyme.

- 4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
- 5. A telephone call was made to Mr.Scott Ausenhus (Reg.No.: 42271) on June 21, 2000 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.
